

New Partners at MLC

The partners of MLC are pleased to announce the appointment of 3 new partners to the practice.

Spencer Lewis, Parm Viridi and Yvette Bacchus who have been solicitors with the firm have joined the partnership.

Spencer Lewis is based in the firm's Snaresbrook office and is a litigator. His main practice area concerns property litigation.

Parm Viridi is based in the firm's Ilford office and leads the firm's matrimonial department.

Yvette Bacchus is based in the firm's Barking office and leads the firm's wealth management and wills and probate practice.

Senior partner Nick Macleish said "The firm is delighted to welcome these talented individuals to the partnership. The firm continues to grow and our new partners' contributions will assist the firm in continuing to provide excellent personal service to all our clients. We look forward to 2008 with continued confidence."
