

Appointment of new trainee

Expanding Essex and Hertfordshire solicitors MacLeish Littlestone Cowan are pleased to announce the appointment of an additional trainee solicitor to their fast growing wealth management and wills and probate team.

Fatema Sattar joins the firm from City practice Blake Laphorn Tarlo Lyons where she gained experience as a Legal Assistant. Fatema is a graduate in Law and Politics from Westminster University and a member of the Royal Academy of Arts. She is a keen skier and diver.

"I am delighted to be awarded a training contract at Macleish Littlestone Cowan. The firm is expanding and is committed to giving its trainees every opportunity to develop."

Head of department, partner Yvette Bacchus welcomes Fatema and said "We are delighted Fatema has joined the firm. She already has an excellent background in wills and probate law and will be able to make a valuable contribution to the firm's fast expanding wealth management and wills and probate practice."

Please contact us for more information | www.mlclaw.co.uk

END