

MLC sponsors Annual Noor UL Islam Summer Fete

MacLeish Littlestone Cowan continues to play its part in its local community and has agreed to sponsor the annual Noor Ul Islam Summer Fete which will take place on Sunday 6 July 2008. The event is a major summer event in the Muslim community and raises funds for community based charities.

MLC is a multi-cultural, multi-faith firm and fully supports community based organizations. Senior partner Nick Macleish is delighted the firm is able to sponsor this important event. "We delighted that we can lend our support to this wonderful summer fete which will help raise valuable funds for community based charities. Our staff come from diverse cultural and faith backgrounds and we fully support worthwhile community projects. It should be a fun day and all our staff are being encouraged to attend and enjoy this event."

Umer Moolla a senior solicitor in the Snaresbrook office who has been responsible for arranging MLC's sponsorship and is a member of Noor Ul Islam said "I am very pleased and proud that the firm can support a great family event as the summer fete and take such an active role in the work of community groups. It should be fun day for all and everyone is welcome to attend."

The Summer fete will be taking place at the Leyton Youth Centre Cricket Ground on Sunday 6 July 2008
